March 2026

From the Principal.....

March often comes with a little “madness’...busy schedules, growing excitement, and plenty of energy filling our classrooms and hallways. With March Madness in full swing, many of our students are talking brackets, teams, and buzzer beaters. Sports reminds us of perseverance, teamwork, discipline, and giving our best effort—qualities we also strive to build in our students each day, both in and out of the classroom.

March also places us firmly in the season of Lent, a time when we are called to slow down, reflect, and refocus our hearts on Jesus. While the world around us can feel fast-paced and loud, Lent invites us to fix our eyes on Jesus and remember what truly matters. At St. Stephen, we help students understand that following Jesus means more than winning or being the best. It means loving others, serving humbly, showing forgiveness, and putting faith into action.

Just as athletes train and practice with intention, lent encourages us to strengthen our faith through prayer, kindness, self-control, and generosity. Our students are learning that even small choices, encouraging a classmate, showing patience, including others, or choosing integrity, are meaningful ways to live out Jesus’ love. Scripture reminds us, “Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus” (Hebrews 12:1-2). What a powerful message for our children as they learn to navigate both school life and their faith journey.

As we move through March, may our students stay grounded in Christ, energized by learning, and united in love. We are thankful for the opportunity to guide our students as they grow academically, socially, and spiritually, always pointing them back to Jesus, who leads us every step of the way.
